An 18-year-old Saronville teen turned himself in last week following reports of vandalism at historic Farmers Valley Cemetery in southeastern Hamilton County.

To learn the suspect's identity and find out more about the case, see this week's print or e-edition.