Dear Editor:

The Second Amendment is very important. If we lose it, the rest of the amendments will fall like dominos. Our freedom will be gone forever.

The enemies and thieves will be overjoyed and enemies of freedom will love it.

The Native Americans lost their land because they fought each other. A house divided will fall.

Freedom and unity have to be so we can enjoy our American way of life. People kill people, not guns.

Gary Eberhardt Aurora